FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OREGON AND WASHINGTON COUNTIES TO SHARE NATIONAL FOREST RECEIPTS

PORTLAND, September 30--Thirty-one counties in Oregon and 27 counties in Washington received interim payments totaling over $131 million--75 percent of their share of estimated revenues from the sale and use of national forest products and services in fiscal year 1992. Nationally, over $236 million in interim payments was distributed. Oregon and Washington ranked first and third respectively among the states to receive the largest payments.

The Oregon amount totals $104,749,379.02 and the Washington amount totals $26,368,331.63, according to Pacific Northwest Regional Forester John Lowe. Final payment to Oregon and Washington is estimated to be $139,665,838.69 and $35,157,775.50, respectively. This reflects a 1.1 percent decrease from last year's actual receipts for Oregon and a 13.8 percent decrease for Washington. Final payments will be made in December, after determining the actual receipts for the fiscal year ending September 30.

Interim payments to Oregon and Washington were computed under a provision of the Interior and Related Agencies 1992 Appropriations Act. Section 316 of that Act provides for payments to States for fiscal year 1992 of not less than 90 percent of the five-year average payments for fiscal years 1986-90 for those national forests affected by decisions on the northern spotted owl. Interim payments to these states would be lower if based solely on actual receipts.

The money returned to the states, and in turn to the counties, is to be used for public schools and roads. By law, the amounts represent 25 percent of the money collected by the Forest Service from the sale of timber, and from grazing, recreation, mineral extraction, and other land-use changes on national forest system lands.

The interim payments do not reflect revenues collected from the Crooked River National Grassland in Oregon. Revenues from the national grasslands are based on calendar year receipts with payments made the following March.
